

Health care while travelling overseas

Reciprocal Health Care Agreements (RHCA)—New Zealand

medicare

New Zealand

What is covered?

- In-patient treatment and accommodation at a public hospital during your stay.

What is not covered?

- You will have to pay the full cost for all other medical treatment, public hospital out-patient treatment and prescription medicine. Children's services are charged at a reduced rate.
- For prescription medicine you will be charged the same rate as non-concession cardholders. When you have paid for 20 prescriptions in one year, a Prescription Subsidy card will be issued which entitles you to reduced medicine costs.
