Your entitlements

You are entitled to subsidised health care during your stay. You do not need to enrol in the National Insurance Scheme (NIS) in Norway.

Always advise the doctor that you want to be treated as a NIS patient.

What is covered?

- Medical treatment from a NIS general practitioner or out-patient department.
- Specialist services when referred by a general practitioner.
- Hospital in-patient treatment.
- Ambulance travel.
- Emergency dental treatment.
- Ancillary care when prescribed by a doctor.
- Prescription medicine—full price until approximately $250 is spent in one year. It is free thereafter. You must keep track of all expenditure.
- Services for children under seven years are free.
- There is no charge for hospital in-patient treatment.

What is not covered?

- Varying charges apply for all services.
- NIS registered doctors charge a reduced fee.
- The majority of doctors in Norway are with the NIS but those that are not will charge a full fee.

For enquiries contact an office of the National Insurance Scheme of Norway.
