Sweden

Your entitlements

Sweden's health scheme provides benefits for medical, hospital and some ancillary services during your stay. Varying charges apply for all services. Charges are reduced for children.

What is covered?

- Medical treatment by any doctor or out-patient department of a hospital.
- A visit to a private doctor who is affiliated with the Social Security Scheme will cost slightly more.
- Some travel costs incurred to get medical treatment may be refunded by the National Social Insurance Board of Sweden (Forsakringskassan). Contact an office of the insurance board for full details.

What is not covered?

- There is a small daily fee for hospital in-patient care.
- There are varying charges for hospital out-patient treatment and visits to a doctor.
- Charges are reduced for children.
- Full price is charged for prescription medicine.

For full details contact an office of the National Social Insurance Board of Sweden (Forsakringskassan).
